Jim Wilson and Melissa Lenczewski, Northern Illinois University
Department of Geography, and Department of Geology and Environmental Geosciences
“Environmental Studies in Burma”

Judy Ledgerwood, Northern Illinois University
Department of Anthropology
“A Return to History: May Ebihara’s Research in Svy Village (1959-60)”
“This lecture will be hosted in HSC, Room 405

Catherine Raymond and Carmin Berchiolly, Northern Illinois University
Center for Burma Studies
“Rescuing Vanishing Art: The Art of Reverse Glass Painting in Mainland Southeast Asia”

Grant Olson and Chalermsree Olson, Northern Illinois University
Department of Foreign Language and Literatures, and University Libraries
“In Search of a Southern Thai Buddhist Artist, the Illusory Khemananda”

Shane Strate, Kent State University
Department of History
“Thailand at the Crossroads: Why National Humiliation Matters”

Helene Siebrits, University of Illinois-Urbana Champaign
Department of Theater
“An Artistic Odyssey: A Look at the Role of One Family in Revival of the Performing Arts in Cambodia since the Fall of the Khmer Rouge”

Duncan McCargo, University of Leeds and Visiting Professor at Columbia University
Department of Political Science
“(Un)Happy Stories from Thailand’s Constitutional Court”

Trude Jacobsen, Northern Illinois University
Department of History
“Sex Trafficking in Southeast Asia: A History of Desire, Duty, and Debt”

I Made Lasmawan, Colorado College
Department of Music
“Teaching Balinese Culture through Local Resources”
“This lecture will be hosted in the Music Building, Room 173

Leslie Advincula Lopez, Ateneo de Manila University
Departments of Political Science and Development Studies
“Gains and Challenges of Bilateral Military Exercises in the Philippines”

Hai-Dang Phan, Grinnell College
Department of English
“Saigon, Wisconsin: Vietnamese American Poetry After Vietnam”

NEW LOCATION
Fridays
Campus Life 100
12:00-1:00 PM

Indonesian box lunches available for purchase through the CSEAS website:
www.cseas.niu.edu.